Trip Planning Checklist

What to book and when, in the order that saves money and stress. Tick as you go.

2–3 MONTHS BEFORE — The big bookings

- [ ] Fix your dates (flexible by a day or two saves money)
- [ ] Book the flight first: compare airlines and check baggage rules
- [ ] Check the arrival time: late landing = transfer + extra night?
- [ ] Book your stay with free cancellation, location over size
- [ ] Passport valid 3–6 months after return, with blank pages
- [ ] Visa or electronic travel permit (e.g. ESTA, UK ETA) from the official site

ABOUT 1 MONTH BEFORE — Protect the trip

- [ ] Buy travel insurance soon after booking (check medical limit and excess)
- [ ] Book the 1–2 tours or tickets you'd hate to miss (free cancellation)
- [ ] Reserve a rental car or plan trains between cities
- [ ] Tell your bank you're travelling; check card fees abroad

Trip Planning Checklist

Part 2: the final weeks and travel day.

1–2 WEEKS BEFORE — Details that save you on arrival

- [ ] Sort out mobile data: install a travel eSIM at home, on Wi-Fi
- [ ] Book the airport transfer or note the train/bus route
- [ ] Install a VPN and turn on auto-connect for public Wi-Fi
- [ ] Update passwords and turn on two-factor authentication
- [ ] Save copies of passport, insurance and bookings (encrypted)
- [ ] Download offline maps and the key apps (airline, transport, translator)

TRAVEL DAY — Before you leave for the airport

- [ ] Online check-in done, boarding pass saved on your phone
- [ ] Medication, chargers and documents in your carry-on
- [ ] One change of clothes in your carry-on
- [ ] Arrive early for international flights
- [ ] Keep your boarding pass until you're home (delay claims)
